Purpose

The Organization supports equal opportunity, prohibits discriminatory practices, and is committed to providing an environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and fairness.

Application of this Code

3. This Code applies to Individuals' conduct during the Organization's business, activities, and events including, but not limited to, competitions, tournaments, practices, tryouts, training camps, travel associated with the Organization's activities, meetings of the Organization's Board, and any other meetings of the Organization.

4. This Code also applies to Individuals' conduct outside of the Organization's business, activities, and events when such conduct adversely affects relationships within the Organization (and its work and sport environment) or is detrimental to the image and reputation of the Organization. Such applicability will be determined by the Organization at its sole discretion.
5. An Individual who violates this Code may be subject to a formal complaint, a discipline process and the imposition of sanctions, pursuant to this Code.

Any infractions or complaints occurring within competition will be dealt with by the procedures specific to the competition, if applicable.

Complaints submitted against the worker's supervisor (whether the supervisor is another employee or a Director) will be addressed i) when submitted against an employee supervisor, per the Organization's policies for human resources, and ii) when submitted against a Director supervisor, per the procedures described in this Code. In both cases, the individual may submit an anonymous complaint and the Organization pledges to engage external assistance handling the complaint and will protect the individual from reprisal.

Jurisdiction

9. Organizational jurisdiction of complaints within Ontario Soccer and its Affiliate Organizations will be determined based upon where and when the conduct occurred, as determined by the Organization's Complaints Administrator or by Ontario Soccer, at its discretion. Ontario Soccer may assume jurisdiction of a complaint being handled by an Affiliate Organization if, in its discretion, it believes that the Affiliate Organization does not have the capacity or capability to handle the complaint or that it may be in a conflict of interest.

36. If the Respondent acknowledges the facts of the incident, the Respondent may decline to participate in the hearing, in which case the Final Decision Making Panel will determine the appropriate sanction. The Final Decision Making Panel may still hold a hearing for the purpose of determining an appropriate sanction.

37. Subject to the above section, the hearing will proceed in any event, even if a Party chooses not to participate in the hearing.

38. In fulfilling its duties, the Final Decision Making Panel may obtain independent legal advice.

- 49. The Final Decision Making Panel may determine if there are exceptions or additional restrictions to the confidentiality section of this Code.

Timelines

- 50. If the circumstances of the complaint are such that adhering to the timelines outlined by this Code will not allow a timely resolution to the complaint, the Final Decision Making Panel and/or Case Manager may direct that these timelines be revised.
